WHAT IS FIRST GENERATION COLLEGE BOUND?

Our non-profit organization coaches and mentors high school students from low-income households to attain an undergraduate college degree and graduate with minimal to no debt.

WHY DO WE SUPPORT FGCB?

Because we care about low-income youth. We believe in their potential to enrich their lives.

OUR BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Our board members are committed volunteers with diverse experience in Business, Law, Government, Education, and Technology. 23% of our board members are FGCB alumni, including the Board Chair.

WHY GIVE TO FGCB?

- » You are investing directly in our community.
- » College graduates earn over $1 million more in their lifetime than those with a high school diploma.
- » FGCB helps first generation and low-income high school students identify affordable colleges that are a best fit based on their academic and financial profile.

WHERE WILL MY DONATION GO?

Donations are invested in FGCB infrastructure and services to sustain its mission of coaching, mentoring, and inspiring youth to graduate from college.

WHO DO WE SERVE?

- » 2000 students annually from first grade through college
- » 85% families below the median Prince George's County income
- » 89% students who qualify for Free and Reduced Meals (FARMS)
- » 27% families below the federal poverty line

WHAT ARE OUR RESULTS?

- » 2,813 students enrolled in college since FGCB's inception
- » 1,871 students currently in college
- » 1,103 postsecondary degrees earned since FGCB's inception.
- » $12 million in financial aid awarded since 2019.

WE NEED YOUR SUPPORT!

- » For over 30 years FGCB has demonstrated a long-term commitment, transforming the lives of our youth and their families.
- » FGCB is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit making your donation tax deductible
- » Your generosity will sustain our mission.
